One Year in the Life of a District Committee on Ordained Ministry

July – Getting Organized
- DCOM Committee Membership: Is everyone registered in UMCARES? Is the membership roster correct?
- Set a schedule for the coming year and make note of important dates
- List and review candidates
- Confirm all admitted candidates are in a mentor group (or assigned to a mentor)
- List and review local pastors and local pastor mentoring groups in light of appointment changes
- Discuss recruiting/enlistment strategies for receiving those who are sensing God’s call.

Late Summer/Early Fall – Provisional and Associate Interviews
- Schedule an interview with candidates applying for associate and provisional membership
  Candidates who apply for the application packet will be placed on the appropriate membership track in UMCARES. They will need to apply before they interview with you, however they cannot continue in the application process without your recommendation.
- Interview candidates for associate and provisional membership.
  Committees are encouraged to complete associate and provisional interviews, with notification of your action to the candidate, by October 1.
- For action taken on associate and provisional membership, the narrative recommendation from the district chair is extremely important to the Board of Ordained Ministry. Respond in detail to each question on the Recommendation report form. A copy of the form is included in the appendix of this handbook; however, you will complete the form through UMCARES. The Center for Clergy Excellence should receive this narrative (via UMCARES) by November 1.
- Other interviews (Admission, Certified Candidacy) as the schedule allows. Note especially those potential Certified Candidates who will be applying for seminary in the winter; it can be an advantage to them for scholarships to be certified when they apply.

Fall/Winter
The Center of Clergy Excellence should receive the narrative recommendation for provisional and associate membership candidates November 1. Submit through UMCARES
- Admission interviews
- Certified candidacy interviews
- Place those interested in pursuing licensing on the Licensing track in UMCARES

Online Document Sharing - UMCARESplus

UMCARESplus (United Methodist Candidacy and Record Entry System) is a secure, web-based file management software program developed by The United Methodist Church. UMCARES is a document sharing tool for active candidates, local pastors, and certified lay ministers as they relate to the DCOM. Required documents, written materials, and forms for each conference relationship are detailed in UMCARES. These documents, written materials, and forms are uploaded into a candidate’s account for access and review by all members of the DCOM prior to action being taken. No paper candidate files are maintained by the DCOM, as all documentation should be uploaded to UMCARES.

Each user is responsible for keeping their profile up to date with current contact information. The DCOM Registrar is responsible for creating and maintaining the candidate, local pastor, and certified lay minister accounts on their district, and for placing each candidate/local pastor on the appropriate “track”. The Center for Clergy Excellence and BOM Registrar are responsible for creating and managing accounts for district committee members and updating the conference relationship status according to the action reported by the DCOM.

Interview Guidelines

General Interview Guidelines

Preparing for an interview

- All DCOM members should review all documents in UMCARES for each candidate/local pastor to be interviewed prior to the DCOM meeting.
- Decide on the size of the interview group. DCOM can subdivide for most interviews and then report back a recommendation to total committee for final decision.
- Video conference interviews should be offered for those candidates who are living out of the area—after at least one in-person interview between that candidate and the committee.
- Allow fifteen minutes before each interview to discuss concerns and issues that need to be addressed in the interview.
- Decide on the most important questions and who will ask each question (do not have the chair or one person ask all the questions).
- Decide how to begin the interview. Do not begin with the psychological assessment.
- Remember the distinctions between candidates on the elder track and the deacon track. Ask appropriate questions.
- Decide how long the interview will be.

During an interview

- If the mentor is a member of the DCOM, the mentor shall not be present for the interview.
- The candidate does most of the talking.
- Do not allow other committee members to answer questions or to engage in an argument or discussion with the candidate or each other during the interview.
- Keep the conversation focused on the matter at hand.

Discussion after an interview

- Recommendations should be determined by the whole committee after the interview, and must be put in writing. Feedback should not be communicated by individual committee members offering advice during the interview.
- The Book of Discipline requires that the decision of the DCOM be communicated in writing to the candidate/local pastor following the interview. Do not have the candidate wait in the building after the interview for this decision. Let them know when they can expect to hear from the chair.
- Evaluate the interview. What was effective in the interview? What would we do differently next time? Were any questions asked that were inappropriate?

Role of the Chair

- Make sure, prior to scheduling an interview, that the necessary documents for a particular candidate have been uploaded into UMCARES.
- Welcome the candidate to the interview and introduce by name and church/campus ministry setting to the DCOM. State the purpose of the interview (Admission Interview, Certification Interview, Renewal Interview, Recommendation for provisional or associate membership, etc.)
- Ask members of the DCOM to introduce themselves.
- Ask someone on the DCOM to begin with a prayer.
- State the time available for the interview and be the time-keeper.
• The chair may want to ask the first question. A possible first question might be: “Tell us about yourself and your sense of call toward ministry.”
• Be careful to involve the members of your committee in asking the questions. After the first question, the chair should focus on process and time-keeping rather than asking questions.
• Ask someone on the DCOM to close with prayer.

- For those who have completed COS or M.Div., track continuing education requirements and review progress.

Suggested Questions
- Review the responses to the questions above.
- Focus on the candidate’s areas of strength and areas for growth rather than spending a lot of time on what is going on or not going on in their church. Be careful to not spend the time evaluating the church/charge but keep the focus on the local pastor and his/her role, skills, self-growth and pastoral identity.
- What/where are your support systems? How are you making time for family and/or self-care?
- What were your goals or objectives for personal or professional growth last year? What did you do toward accomplishing these goals and how well did it work?
- How are you caring for your health? How do you get exercise, manage stress, cultivate relationships and interests beyond your ministry setting?
- How do you equip laity in your church? Share some specific examples.
• What are your plans for the future? Continuing education plans? Plans for ordination or associate membership?
• What was your Course of Study focus last year? Did you find it helpful/useful? What changes or improvements to your practice of ministry can you identify as a result of the Course of Study?
• In what ways have you grown spiritually in the past year, both personally and as a pastor? What do you feel were the causes of this growth?
• What was the most difficult challenge you faced as pastor this past year and how did you meet it? What did you learn from it? How do you feel you have grown as a result of it?
• Talk about your pastoral appointment? Has it been what you expected when you felt called to become a local pastor? In what ways have you been surprised? In what ways have you been affirmed that you are properly responding to God’s call in your life.
• What is the single most important thing you need at this point in time to become a better pastor?
• What was the greatest joy you experienced in the past year? Why do you feel this was so?
• How do you integrate your personal and professional responsibilities? Do you experience tensions between family/self and church expectations of your work, your time or your identity?

- An Action Report is submitted to the Center for Clergy Excellence.
- A recommendation by the Retirement Committee of BOM is also required.
- For licensing and appointment as a retired local pastor, an annual interview and recommendation by the DCOM is required (and reported on an Action Report form).

- Requires the annual request by the pastor in charge to the bishop and district committee on ordained ministry
- Requires annual approval by the DCOM and bishop
- An interview is not necessarily required; however, recommendation by the DCOM is required (and reported on an Action Report form).

Associate Membership – Effectiveness in Ministry

District Committee on Ordained Ministry Recommendation

Once the Center for Clergy Excellence has received your application form, you will be placed on the “Applying for Associate Membership” track in UMCARES. The information you need relating to your DCOM interview can be found on that track in UMCARES. For your convenience, the requirements and further explanation are below.

The Board of Ordained Ministry reviews candidates in the following three major areas for associate membership: Theology, Vocation and Leadership, and Practice of Ministry.

In preparation for your meeting with the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, please submit the following via UMCARES prior to your interview. If you are returning to the Board of Ordained Ministry, only respond to the areas you are required to resubmit.

1. Write 1 or 2 "bullet" responses to each of the questions in the three categories as follows:
   - Questions for the Theology Paper
   - Questions for the Vocation and Leadership Paper
   - Questions for the Practice of Ministry Paper

   These "bullet answers" will, of course, not be comprehensive, lengthy or reflective of the nuanced way you would answer each question. Each bullet would only be a sentence or two in length. The committee would only like a sense of the direction you will be taking to answer each question.

2. In addition, write a 200 word response to one of the questions in the Theology Paper. You may choose which question to answer, and you need not provide "bullets" for that one question. Again, 200 words may or may not reflect the depth and nuance you will be providing to the Board of Ordained Ministry. The goal for this is to get a fair assessment of your writing style.

   If you are returning to the BOM, but not in Theology, confirm with your DCOM chairperson the area from which you should submit the writing sample.
Recommendation for Provisional Membership

Requirements prior to interview
1. Certified candidate or licensed local pastor for at least one year prior to desired election to provisional membership. (Annual renewal of certified candidacy or license for pastoral ministry if certified for longer than one year.)
2. Service requirement – demonstrated gifts for ministries of service and leadership to the satisfaction of the DCOM
3. Met the educational requirements of the VA Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (which include the educational requirements in ¶324) including an undergraduate degree
   (For those applying under ¶324.6, reached 40 years of age, completed the 5 year Course of Study, and 32 semester hours of graduate theological study – specific courses are required in VA – and met the educational requirements of the VA Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. See the “Three Tracks to Full Conference Membership & Ordination” in the Appendix of this Handbook.)
4. If this is also the interview for candidacy renewal or local pastor continuance, see the requirements on those pages.

Criteria:
• Note areas of developing competencies
• Consider the fruitfulness of candidate’s field education experiences, internships, other practice of ministry experiences
• Review how theological understanding has evolved since certification.
• Review carefully educational requirements (note that a bachelor’s degree is required with exceptions granted only by the Board of Ordained Ministry). Contact the Center for Clergy Excellence with any questions
• Readiness for ministry will be evaluated in four areas: call, theology, personal growth and development, and practice of ministry.

Suggested Questions
• Candidate will write papers and be interviewed in four areas: Call, Theology, Personal Growth and Development, and Practice of Ministry.
• All of us are called by God. Share about your specific call to ordained ministry?
• Questions that would integrate their theology with their practice of ministry.
• Questions that make the connection between their seminary/Course of Study education and their practice of ministry.
• How has your theology changed since you have been in seminary/Course of Study?
• Where/what are your support systems?
• What did you learn about yourself and about ministry through the CPE experience?

Action Required
• Three-fourths majority vote; DCOM registrar completes the Action Report Form in UMCARES, submitting the form to the BOM Registrar
• DCOM Chair completes the narrative recommendation and submits this report to the Board of Ordained Ministry (via UMCARES).
• If not recommended, the Action Report should indicate the appropriate recommendation for renewal as a certified candidate or licensed local pastor.
Board of Ordained Ministry
Virginia Conference, The United Methodist Church

Educational Requirements for Provisional Membership

One course in each area listed below must be included in graduate theological education in preparation for provisional membership in the VAUMC, and the Basic Graduate Theological Studies, noted with an asterisk *, must equal at least 27 semester credits total. Please note: the Virginia Conference requires completion of all educational requirements prior to commissioning and provisional membership. In addition, completion of an undergraduate bachelor’s degree is required.

- *Old Testament
- *New Testament
- *Theology
- *Church history
- *Mission of the church in the world
- *Worship/liturgy
- *Evangelism
- *A minimum of two semester or three quarter hours in each of the fields of United Methodist history, doctrine, and polity.
- A course in preaching is required by the Virginia Conference. This requirement is currently effective only for provisional elder candidates, but will be required for provisional deacon candidates for the 2020 interviews.

In addition to the above requirements, the Virginia Conference Board of Ordained Ministry requires that all candidates for ordination complete at least ½ unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) by the application deadline for ordination as a deacon or elder and/or full membership in the conference. The Board strongly encourages completion of CPE prior to provisional membership. CPE must be taken at a CPE site that is accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE). Online CPE programs are not accepted.

The Virginia Conference Board of Ordained Ministry strongly encourages completion of United Methodist doctrine prior to applying for provisional membership. The Board recommends courses in Christian education and systematic theology for all candidates.

The Virginia Conference Board of Ordained Ministry allows up to 1/2 of all course work to be completed through distance education, with no more than 1/3 of the course work to be completed by fully asynchronous methods. The United Methodist Church allows online courses to be taken only at one of the 13 official United Methodist seminaries or Asbury Theological Seminary. Distance education includes all correspondence, online and hybrid courses in which the students and faculty are not in the same physical location. “Fully Asynchronous” courses are those in which students and faculty are neither in the same physical location nor online at the same time.

Although each seminary has the responsibility to designate which basic courses meet the core requirements and advise students of these courses, the conference Board of Ordained Ministry will have the final authority to approve academic studies. Questions should be addressed to the Registrar, Meredith McNabb at MeredithMcNabb@vaumc.org.
